21st year Celebration

Festival Go'ers

May 4th thru May 7th 2017

You are invited to join us for our 21st year celebration of the Black Cowboy "Man or Myth" Festival. Four days full of fun and excitement. If you have never been with us you don't want to miss this awesome event, those who have been with us in the past will be in for a extra treat with our new added attractions in celebration of our twenty first year. We are excited about our continued success in sharing the history and performance of the African American Cowboy experience. The event includes many other aspects of African American culture to entertain and educate you on. So mark your calendar and get on the wagon for a weekend of adventure and fun.

This event is held on the historical grounds of Greenfield Farm in Rembert South Carolina. People come from all over the east coast to experience the excitement and historical enlightenment of skilled horsemanship.

This event has proven to be a great crowd pleaser for all ages, with competitive rodeo events, demonstrators, USDA Workshops, entertainers, horseback rides, wagon rides, artifacts and food vendors.

Whether you are participating for the first time or for the 20th time you can be assured that it will be an experience you will never forget nor regret.

Come experience The Black Cowboy "Man or Myth" Festival.
